Programs

1. Promotion of Shooting Sports - The association sponsors, coordinates and promotes the shooting sports across the state. Shooting disciplines include high-power rifle, small bore rifle, international and conventional pistol, international air rifle and pistol, and cowboy action. State shooting records and state championship trophies are awarded for many disciplines. Sponsorship is also provided to North Dakota junior shooting athletes attending national championship matches.

2. Legislative Action - NDSSA's Legislative Action Committee, works with the NRA's Institute for Legislative Action to monitor all branches of the government on issues that might infringe on your rights to own and use firearms for lawful purposes.

3. Communications - The NDSSA publishes an electronic newsletter designed to give members the latest information on upcoming matches, match results, current legislative activity, and other timely subjects of general interest to firearms owners. Our website is: www.ndssa.org.

4. Political Information - Inform association and NRA members of political candidates views and actions on issues that directly relate to firearm owner's rights.

5. Education - The NDSSA distributes articles, pamphlets, and other written material designed to educate the general public on issues of firearm ownership and use. Individual members and affiliated clubs participate in gun shows, fairs and similar events on a regular basis to interact with the public regarding firearm laws, competitive shooting, and other lawful use of firearms.

North Dakota Shooting Sports Association

History

NDSSA is a non-profit organization composed of competitive shooters, hunters, collectors, and general firearms enthusiasts. It was organized in 1951 and is the official state affiliated organization of the National Rifle Association of America and sponsors numerous competitive shooting events in several disciplines.

Organization

NDSSA is a grassroots organization whose membership participates in its activities and functions at both the local and state levels. Officers and a board of directors are elected at the annual meeting according to the NDSSA constitution. The membership is then represented by these officers and board with assistance of committee chairmen to carry out daily activities.

Why Join Us

To support and promote the Shooting Sports in North Dakota and Junior Shooting programs and athletes. As a serious or casual shooter, sportsman, collector, or general firearms enthusiast, NDSSA is your most effective voice in assuring continued possession and use of firearms for lawful purposes. We need your input and support as a NDSSA member to continue these efforts.

Mission Statement

The mission of the North Dakota Shooting Sports Association is the promotion and protection of the U.S. Constitution and the Second Amendment, shooting sports, hunting, and the National Rifle Association of America within the State of North Dakota. Through dedicated volunteers, our association strives to provide: A communication network, education, and training, support for affiliated clubs, and an active competitive shooting program. The association serves all persons without regards to sex, race, color, religion, national origin or physical impairment.
